

Die grammatische Bildung dieser Formen ist nun die, daß an die Wurzel des Verbums (z. B. ca, muna) erst die Sylbe pti, und dann nach der Folge der Personen die Besitzpronomina angeheftet werden: muna-pti-y, amando yo, in meinem Lieben, muna-pti-yqui, muna-pti-n, muna-pti-nchi, muna-pti-yca, muna-pti-yquichic, muna-pti-n oder muna-pti-ncu. Diese Formen werden zwar als ein Präsens ausmachend angegeben, haben aber zugleich die Bedeutung des Perfectums, und selbst des Fut. perf., wie wenn man sagt huma-pti-y ri-nqui, du wirst gehen in meinem Kommen, d. i. wenn ich werde gekommen seyn. Auch diese Eigenthümlichkeit spricht für ihre Gerundivnatur. Doch werden auch ein eignes Präteritum und Futurum durch Zusammensetzung dieses Gerundiums des Verbum substant. mit dem Part. praet. und fut. des Passivums gebildet, und zwar wird alsdann entweder das Participium unverändert gelassen und das Besitzpronomen der in Rede stehenden Person an das Hilfsverbum gehängt, munasca ca-pti-y, in meinem Geliebt-haben, oder das Besitzpronomen dieser Person tritt an das Participium, und das Gerundium des Hilfsverbs nimmt durch alle Personen hindurch das der 3. Pers. Sing. an, muna-sca-y ca-pti-n, munasca-yqui ca-pti-n, gleichsam als sagte man: in seinem i. e. in dem Seyn mein Geliebtes, was allerdings indirect dasselbe sagen würde als: in meinem Geliebt-haben, da ich geliebt haben muß, wenn es ein von mir Geliebtes soll geben können. In der Verbindung mit dem Part. praet. kann die eine und die andre dieser Formen gebraucht werden. In der mit dem Part. fut. finde ich nur die zuletzt erwähnte, muna-ncu-y ca-pti-n, in meinem Haben zu lieben, wenn ich zu lieben haben werde. Diese Umdrehung der natürlichen Personenfolge findet sich auch bei dem Verbum finitum, wo etc.

Die Gegenden ehemaliger Civilisation kennen wir theils aus den Erzählungen der Geschichtsschreiber und Reisenden, theils aus noch wirklich vorhandenen Denkmälern. Wir versuchen es hier eine Liste vorzüglich der letzteren zu geben, indem wir geographisch von Norden nach Süden und von Westen nach Osten gehen, da die Civilisation selbst, wenigstens zum Theil, diesen Weg genommen hat (*).

In beiden Hälften Amerika's finden sich von Menschenhänden aufgeführte Hügel (tumuli) zu Grabstätten, Befestigungswerken oder Grundlagen von Tempeln, an mehreren Orten aber, soviel man sehen kann, zu keinem dieser Zwecke bestimmt (Humboldt, monumens. 197. 316.). Vorzüglich merkwürdige kommen vor in Canada [44° n. Br. und höher], (*) Das hier folgende Verzeichniß wird sich unstreitig noch vielfach vervollständigen lassen, und ich werde bemüht seyn, es zu thun, da es interessant ist, die Alterthümer der neuen Welt auf eine ähnliche Weise zu übersehen, als die der alten in einem nicht genug geachteten Werke Oberlin's zusammengestellt sind.

I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I am still the same old me, but with a few more wrinkles and a few more years. I am still very much interested in the world and in the people in it.

ces flammes d'air doivent interrompre beaucoup et m'étaient inconnues. L'amiral voulait faire visite à D.
Dextre Bobadilla dans de yomere sans toucher la nouvelle île de Tenes. L'île à trouvant pas, il la cherche à la grande raiance, et voit les flammes du Pie en l'orientant à nul de vant l'île. Et il doit avoir pass' au sud de Tenes et non au Nord par que le vent du Nord est empêche de l'avancer pendant la nuit de ce côté. Il n'en fait que des flammes sortant de côté du sud et ne sont point dues au courant de l'ouest, comme je l'ai entendu vaguement avancer quelquefois. La raiance est 1792

A close-up photograph of a piece of aged, yellowed paper. The paper has a mottled appearance with various brown and tan stains, likely from water damage or foxing. There are some faint, dark, illegible markings scattered across the surface, possibly remnants of text or drawings. The texture of the paper appears slightly rough and uneven.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of a solution of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system of equations (1) has a solution for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied.

It is a common mistake to think that the Latin of the Middle Ages is a simple continuation of the Latin of the Roman Empire.
 It is not so. It is a new language, born of the old, but with its own characteristics.

For the purpose of this study, I have selected the following texts:

Gregory VII

Letter of Gregory VII to Henry IV dated 1076, from the Vatican concerning the Investiture Controversy.
 (Vatican Archives 1301. + 218.813)

Cola di Rienzo's Letter to the Romans, 1347

7.10.1347

Cola di Rienzo's Letter to the Romans, 1347. This letter is a masterpiece of Latin prose. It is written in a simple, direct style, but with a powerful rhetorical force. Cola di Rienzo is a popular leader, and his letter is a call to arms for the Romans. He is asking them to rise up against the papal curia and the foreign lords who oppress them.
 The letter is a model of clarity and simplicity. It is a great example of the power of the written word in the Middle Ages.

[Faint handwritten notes, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]

[illegible]

A faint, handwritten sketch of a landscape or map, possibly a field or a body of water, with various lines and markings. The drawing is very light and appears to be a preliminary sketch or a very light pencil drawing. It shows some irregular shapes and lines that might represent terrain features, but the details are too faint to discern clearly.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was a warm, sticky embrace.
 The humidity was thick, almost tangible, and it felt like a giant hand was squeezing me.
 I took a deep breath, trying to ignore the oppressive heat. The air smelled like a mix of fresh rain and old, damp earth. It was a strange, comforting scent. I looked around at the lush greenery, the vibrant colors of the tropical plants. It was a beautiful sight, but the heat was still the most prominent feature. I adjusted my sunglasses and took another deep breath. The humidity was a challenge, but it was also a part of the experience. I was in a new world, and I was going to embrace it all.

Oct. 21st. 1882. 1882
 The day was very warm and clear. The wind was from the south and the sea was calm. The sun was shining brightly and the sky was blue. The water was very warm and the fish were jumping out of the water. The birds were singing and the children were playing. The day was very pleasant and the weather was perfect.

1) Behaim v. Navarra ist als Vater des Kolumbus in der von Perionmont

Behaim, von 1480 bis 1484 in Navarra sah er sich erörtern an diese Stelle geschrieben und auch das

Behaim's Anfangs, dass Behaim's Name, von Kolumbus in Beziehung zu Kolumbus, Behaim hat nicht geschrieben auch die Namen genannt, behauptet aber nicht, obgleich er Herrera, Teller de Leyva, Ovando, Dapper u. A. aufgeführt, die es ausdrücklich bezeugen. Will man es wollen, dass man sagen, B. hat sich mit Kolumbus und Kolumbus hat

des ostlichen Afrikan

Es wäre viel zu weit zu suchen gegangen, wenn ich nicht schon ~~vorher~~ auf den vorhergehenden Blättern geschrieben, daß Platon's dem östlichen Afrikan gar kein Trapezium gebe. In seiner Zeit war man in der That von Afrika nicht anders ferne als Kaga (bei Malinda) sondern sogar bis zum Vorgebirge Kap Delgado gekommen, wo sich die Küste etwas östlich zieht. Daraus ist klar, vielleicht auch daraus daß man nicht vergebens versucht hat die Erzählungen der griechischen Schriftsteller von Landern bekannt, die Indian südöstlich genannt sind (Aethiopien), nämlich Platon's das indische Meer für ein eingekerkeltes Land zieht die Küste von Afrika bis nach Indien hinüber, so anzusehen:

Die Sunda, ein Inseln, müßte an fastlich am das Meer setzen, nicht aber so, daß sie es wirklich haben, sondern wenn zieht sich Asien in unbekannter nach Osten fort bis in die Nähe von Europa; von da, Tagoskana südlich liegenden, Küste bis zum Vorgebirge ist alles Land. Es sind die Zeichnungen auf allen Seiten, die wie in unsern geographischen Handbüchern des Platon's haben. Man begreift man wohl, warum — Voici, d'après une lettre de Gênes, des renseignements sur le lieu de naissance de Christophe Colomb.

Les biographes de cet illustre navigateur, tout en s'accordant sur ce point, qu'il était né dans l'état de Gênes, varient sur la localité qu'il vit le jour. Selon les uns, il serait né dans le village de Cogorco ou dans celui de Nervi; selon d'autres, à Savone ou à Gênes; selon d'autres, à Lagureto ou à Cuccaro, dans le Montferrat.

Maintenant tous les doutes à cet égard sont levés. M. Isnardi, archéologue piémontais distingué, vient de trouver dans les archives de Gênes la preuve authentique que Christophe Colomb naquit à Colognetto, dans la république de Gênes. Cette preuve consiste dans une lettre écrite par le gouvernement de cet état, en date du 7 novembre 1586, à son ambassadeur Dorra à Madrid, la quelle contient le passage suivant :

« Christophe Colomb, de Colognetto, homme illustre, comme vous devez le savoir, puisque vous vous trouvez en Espagne, »
« a, selon ce que nous avons appris, ordonné dans son testament » « qu'il sera construit à Gênes une maison qui portera son nom, »
« et qu'une rente sera constituée pour la conservation de ce bâtiment etc., etc. »

Ce motif, en vertu de mandats décernés du cimetière par M. le préfet de police, douze ou quinze ouvriers, fabricans de parapluies, ont été arrêtés par M. le commissaire de police Monnier. La prescription qui pèse sur eux est celle de coalition d'ouvriers. (Gazette des Tribunaux.)

On danse partout. Incessamment les places publiques seront travesties en salons de bal. Qu'importent l'état, la patrie ? Que chacun s'amuse, fasse ses petites affaires, à la chambre des députés, à la bourse : celles du pays ne regardent personne. Cours de morale chez Musard, au raout de la rue Saint-Honore, chez Paganini, dans les palais, dans les hôtels de la Chaussée-d'Antin et du faubourg Saint-Germain. Je vous le demande, que voulez-vous, monsieur, qu'il reste à dire à des gens frappés de vertige et que pourrez-vous espérer d'eux ? Le Charivari, dans ce déménagement de la raison et de la dignité humaine, est le seul écrit qui soit dans le vrai, le monument historique qui restera pour caractériser l'illustre époque où nous vivons. »

« QUESTION DE PRESSE.

Une question toute nouvelle est soulevée par le genre de procédure que M. Zangiacomi applique à l'affaire Walsh, procédure par suite de laquelle on instruit non-seulement contre le gérant responsable, mais contre l'un des collaborateurs du journal, qua-Venna. Bisher kannte man den Geburtsort des Christophers Columbus nicht mit Gewisheit. Die Biographen dieses ausgezeichneten Seefahrers stimmen zwar darin überein, daß er im West. den geboren wurde, aber über den Ort, wo er das Licht der Welt erblickte, herrschten verschiedene Meinungen. Nach Einigen wurde er in der Dorfe Cogores oder in Meri, nach Anderen in Zarent oder in Venna geboren, während noch Andere Sagarello oder Caccaro, im Herzogthume Monterrat, als seinen Geburtsort anzeihen. Alle diese Zweifel sind jetzt gehoben, da Herr Isard, ein gelehrter Piemontesischer Archäolog, in den Archiven von Savoyen den authentischen Beweis entziffert hat, daß Christoph Columbus in Sagarello in der Diözese Venna geboren ist. Dieser Beweis besteht in einem Schreiben, welches die Regierung des genannten Staats am 7. Decembris 1588, an ihren Gesandten in Madrid, Loria, gerichtet hat. Es enthält folgende Stelle: „Christoph Columbus aus Sagarello, ein ausgezeichneter Mann, wie Ihr wissen werdet, da Ihr Euch in Spanien befindet, hat, wie wir erfahren haben, in seinem Testamente verordnet, daß in Venna ein Haus erbaut werden, seinen Namen tragen und daß eine Rente zur Erhaltung des Hauses gestiftet werden soll u. s. w.“

herigen Leistungen Milani's und seiner Ingenieure sind in dem ersten technischen Jahres-Berichte aufgeführt, welchen derselbe vor kurzem an die Direction der Eisenbahn-Unternehmung erstatet, und den letztere durch den Druck bekannt gemacht hat.

Cette REVUE ne contient que des articles originaux. On a expressément réservé pour cette REVUE tous les articles importants qui pourraient mettre parfaitement au courant les lecteurs que la dépense de 72 par an ou leurs occupations empêchent d'avoir un journal quotidien.

La direction du TEMPS, mue par un sentiment patriotique, et n'ayant pas à payer, spécialement pour cette REVUE, les frais si coûteux de rédaction, composition et d'administration, pouvait seule, par son nombreux personnel et la variété des articles, exécuter cette REVUE qui contient de 250 à 265,000 lettres, plus d'un demi-volume in 8°, au prix économique de UN FRANC PAR MOIS, qui rembourse à peu près les frais matériels.

Pour recevoir, un numéro des TABLETTES TEMPS, Revue de la semaine, il suffit d'écrire, fr.
de port, au directeur du TEMPS, rue du Mail, à Paris.

Prix des 52 numéros de l'année : 12 francs.

LA MÉTAPHYSI

GÉOGRAPHIE. — Sur une ancienne carte nautique — M. Tastu, qui avait été envoyé en Espagne par le gouvernement pour y recueillir des documens relatifs, les uns à l'histoire des provinces méridionales de la France, et les autres à la langue romane, adresse le calque d'une ancienne carte qu'il a trouvée à Majorque, et une notice destinée à faire connaître cette carte, laquelle semble être un monument fort curieux.

Où a avancé mal à propos, dit M. Tastu, que les Portugais aient été les premiers inventeurs des cartes plumes. Plusieurs écrivains, et entre autres Juan Andres, en font honneur au prince don Henry de Portugal. Aujourd'hui, de nouveaux documens semblent prouver que cet honneur appartient aux Catalans majorquins. M. Tastu cite à cet effet d'une part l'Atlas catalan de 1375, de l'autre la carte dont il adresse une copie, et qu'il a étudiée en détail pendant son séjour aux Baléares.

L'Atlas de 1375, qui est à la bibliothèque du roi, décide à lui seul la priorité en faveur des Catalans majorquins, car à cette époque Henry de Portugal était trop jeune pour pouvoir créer des académies nautiques, tandis qu'en 1341 Jaime Ferrer partait pour le Rode l'Or sur un petit vaisseau à trois mâts ; or, ce Ferrer était un Majorquin et l'Atlas dont nous parlons est écrit en majorquin, comme nous le verrons bientôt.

La seconde carte a été aussi faite à Majorque, mais après plus d'un demi-siècle ; elle appartenait à M. le comte de Montenegro, qui a permis à M. Tastu d'en prendre copie. Un seul écrivain jusqu'à présent en avait parlé, c'est le P. Ant. Raymond Pasqual, qui l'avait vue chez le cir final Despuig, oncle de M. de Montenegro ; mais cet auteur avoue n'avoir pu réussir à le lire en entier.

Une note écrite sur le revers du parchemin annonce que cette carte a appartenu à Amerigo-Vesputse qui l'avait achetée au prix de 130 lucas d'or. Une des inscriptions nombreuses que porte l'autre côté, fait savoir que l'auteur se nommait Gabriel de Valsequa. Toutes ces inscriptions sont, au dire du père Raymond Pasqual, sage et compétent en pareilles matières, écrites en langue majorquine, la plus pure qu'on parlât alors. La carte de 1375 est écrite exactement dans la même langue, qui était d'ailleurs à peu près identique à Barcelone, à Valence, à Majorque, et dans d'autres pays soumis à la couronne d'Aragon.

En m'occupant de l'Atlas de 1375, dit M. Tastu, j'avais pensé que dans une des bordures qui semblent seulement faire ornement, l'artiste avait écrit quelques paroles arabes ; aujourd'hui j'en suis convaincu en voyant la carte de 1439, où une inscription arabe suit le filet qui forme l'encadrement.

Sous le rapport de l'art, l'Atlas de 1375 ne peut pas être comparé à la carte de 1439 ; celle-ci est un chef-d'œuvre.

La carte et la note sont renvoyées à l'examen d'une commission composée de MM. Beantems Beaupre, Freycinet et Puissant, commission à laquelle l'académie des inscriptions et belles-lettres sera invitée à adjoindre quelques-uns de ses membres.

Der Priester Johannes.

Zu einigen unserer geographischen Bücher spukt der Priester Johannes gar gewaltig; was es eigentlich mit demselben für eine Bewandniß gehabt habe, ist nach den Forschungen über die Geschichte des östlichen Asiens, die man besonders dem Petersburger Gelehrten, Z. Z. Schmidt, und dem Pariser Sinologen Abel Rémusat verdankt, ziemlich deutlich¹⁾, dagegen ist das Räthsel noch ungeklärt, wie sich ein Wang-Khan in einen Priester Johannes verwandelt konnte. Gieseler hat es versucht, Andeutungen dazu zu geben. Nördlich von China, so beginnt er, südlich vom Baikal-See, wohnte der tatarische Stamm der Kerait, deren Häupt im Anfange des elften Jahrhunderts von einem nestorianischen Missionar besetzt sein, und einen großen Theil seines Volkes nach sich gezogen haben soll. Wie es sich mit dieser Besehrung verhalten habe, ob der Tatarfürst nur neben andern Göttern auch den Christengott zu verehren angefangen habe, wie dies bei mehreren der späteren Mongolenkhanen der Fall war, darüber läßt sich nichts sagen. Indes erhielt sich das Christenthum, oder was als solches dort Eingang fand, in seiner Fürstenfamilie und deren Gebiete. Einer dieser Fürsten im zwölften Jahrhundert empfing von dem chinesischen Kaiser den Titel Wang, d. i. König, und verband ihn mit dem gleichbedeutenden tatarischen Khan. Daß aus diesem Wang-Khan durch Mißverständnis Johannes Presbyter geworden ist, darüber ist man einig; dagegen sind sehr verschiedene Vermuthungen gemacht, um zu erklären, wie diese Umwandlung erfolgt sein möge. — Um hier richtig zu verfahren, wird man davon ausgehen müssen, daß die Nachrichten von jenen christlichen Fürsten in Ostasien zunächst durch die Nestorianer nach Westasien kamen und von da aus sich weiter verbreiteten; daß also der Mißverständnis in den durch diesen Gang der Sagen bedingten Sprachverhältnissen wurzeln wird. Die Kirchensprache der Nestorianer war die chaldäische, die Sprache des gemeinen Lebens war die damals allgemein im westlichen Asien verbreitete arabische; beide mit einander verwandte semitische Dialekte. — Aus Wang wurde Tuchanan, Johann. Es läßt sich darüber nichts weiter sagen, als daß die Orientalen sehr oft einen fremden Namen auf diese Weise in ihre Sprache übertragen, daß sie ihn mit dem, demselben am ähnlichsten klingenden Namen ihrer Sprache vertauschten. Hier war zu einer solchen Vertauschung dadurch noch eine besondere Anfordderung gegeben, daß bei dem nestorianischen Könige doch ein christlicher Name vorausgesetzt werden konnte. In dem Namensvertrathe der Nestorianer lag aber Tuchanan, vielleicht Juan abgekürzt, dem fremden Wang am nächsten. — Khan, als mongolischer Präfixtitel war im zwölften Jahrhundert in Westasien noch eben so unbekannt, als er nach dem Vordringen der Mongolen im dreizehnten Jahrhundert bekannt wurde. Dagegen lag in allen semitischen Dialecten das Wort für Priester ¹⁾ im Klange dem mongolischen Khan sehr nahe: und so ergab sich bei der Verbreitung der Erzählung in semitischen Dialecten das Mißverständniß, daß der nekt beschrte Juan Khan ein Priester Johannes sei, fast mit Nothwendigkeit. Nachdem im dreizehnten Jahrhundert der mongolische Titel Khan bekannt genug geworden war, hatte sich das Mißverständniß schon in eine Menge anderer Sprachen verpflanzt, in denen die eigentliche Quelle desselben zu entdecken unmöglich war. Obgleich daher Marco Polo und Rubruquis, welche im dreizehnten Jahrhundert das Land des Priesters Johannes besuchten, wol die Falschheit der früheren Nachrichten erkannten, so wußten sie doch die Quelle des Irrthums nur in den Lügen der Nestorianer zu finden. — Nach dem Obigen kam die Nachricht von dem Priester Johannes zuerst durch die armenische Gesandtschaft, welche 1145 den Papst Eugenius III. aufsuchte, also durch Monophysiten. Obgleich dem Anscheine nach diese gerade nicht Ursache hatten, sich der Eroberung der Nestorianer zu freuen, so wird dieselbe dennoch von ihnen manichfach angesprochen. Priester Johannes soll von den Magern abstammen, welche schon das Christenthum zu verehren sahen; seine Macht und Reichthümer überstiegen allen Glauben; er soll schon ein Mal mit großer Heeremacht ausgezogen sein, um Jerusalem zu erobern, und nur durch den reisenden Tigris aufgehalten sein.... Die armenische Gesandtschaft hatte noch einen besondern Grund, auf den Priester Johannes Gewicht zu legen. Sie kam, um im Abendlande Beistand gegen die Saracenen zu erbitten. Die Aussicht auf endliche Vernichtung dieser Feinde des Kreuzes, und somit die Bereitwilligkeit der Abendländer, fortwährend ihre Macht gegen dieselben aufzubieten, wurde aber nicht wenig durch die Versicherung gestärkt, daß im fernsten Osten eine christliche Macht, der des Abendlandes gleich, bereit sei, die Ungläubigen auch von der andern Seite anzugreifen. — So wetteiferten also die orientalischen Christen mit einander, den Priester Johannes zu erheben. Bei den Abendländern fehlte es aber nicht an Empfänglichkeit für diese Sage. Zuerst war es die, dieser Zeit überhaupt eigenthümliche Vorliebe für Abenteuerliches, welche durch dieselbe angezogen wurde. Im dreizehnten Jahrhundert bemühtigte sich aber auch die Unzufriedenheit mit den eigenen Verhältnissen dieses Gegenstandes, um in dem Priester Johann das Ideal eines Königs und Priesters in einer Person, unter dessen Scepter Friede und Gerechtigkeit blühe, im Gegensatz zu dem unheilvollen Kampfe des Priestenthums und Königthums im Abendlande darzustellen. Diese Absicht scheint besonders im Titulir durch. Für den heiligen Gral giebt es im Abendlande keine wirkliche Wohnung mehr: er zieht in das reine, heilige Land des Priesters Johann. vostra dernière lettre, non peu et excellent ami, m'a parvenu avant hier. Je m'empresse d'y répondre, vous me dites que je vous ai jecté dans l'immensité du livre de St Jérôme; il est juste qu, je me hâte de vous en dire, j'ai écrit sur un feuillet joint à cette lettre, la description de mon exemplaire; vous verrez en état de faire la comparaison.

Le temps a été mauvais ces deux jours-ci et le papier m'a manqué; sans cela j'eusse été chez M. Lefebvre, membre de l'Académie des Sciences et chez M. Henri Ternaux; ils ont aussi un exemplaire des Navigations de Zoroastre.
J'ai les deux examiné et j'ai pu voir qu'ils sont identiques avec la Porte ou avec le manuscrit du même moment. Je m'occupe de cet objet.

Ce qui importe d'abord, c'est de vous expédier la description de mon exemplaire du livre de St Jérôme; vous verrez par les détails dans lesquels j'ai été, qu'il est bien réellement imprimé en 1507. Il ne diffère de votre que par de dissemblances qui se trouvent au commencement du volumen il paraît ~~être~~ résulter de ce fait qu'une réimpression a été faite dans le cours de la même année. Dans ce cas, votre exemplaire doit être antérieur

J'ai l'honneur de vous adresser Monsieur le traité de Navigation dont je vous ai parlé hier et qui comme vous le voyez est de beaucoup supérieur à celui de Medina. C'est une seconde édition et je n'ai pu découvrir quelle est la date de la première je conçois bien que d'abord le traité de Medina ait été malgré toutes les imperfections fort recherché puis qu'après avoir vu sa nouveauté que des cotices ou plus tôt des protulances qui même contenaient beaucoup plus de régulations de différens ports que les indications pour y entrer. mais il est étrange que lorsqu'on avait l'instruction de l'égypte on ne continue à se donner de nouvelles éditions de la traduction de Medina son est une cependant qui est de 1628 car a été postérieure de 17 ans à la seconde édition de l'égypte j'ajoute sur ce dernier ouvrage parce que c'est une instruction pratiquée non à la portée des navigateurs qui dans les 15^e et 16^e siècle n'étaient pas grands théoriciens, mais en excepté même selon car je ^{crois} ~~peux~~ à croire qu'au premier voyage d'un homme jamais remarqué le mouvement de la polaire autour du pôle vrai qu'on en fut bien convaincu des travaux de son temps - je suppose d'ailleurs que les parlez qui vous n'avez pas vu son bien endormi relatifs à la variation de l'air.

Je regrette que vous n'ayez pas reçu avant votre départ de Berlin un ou deux ou trois ou quatre lettres que je vous écrivais en vous adressant une nouvelle édition de mon memoire sur le sujet y en outre le plus des recherches que j'en ai commencées relativement aux populations américaines relatives à leur état de civilisation par la comparaison des coutumes originelles des plantes domestiques de la classe avec un type plus ou moins y en de l'habitation les états de ces populations. etc. etc. et aussi approuvé avec les populations du sud du sud et du Nord de l'Asie et de l'Europe. L'avis qu'on a de ces deux populations et de l'état de civilisation y était persuadé que la comparaison des langues en ce moyen de les y en arriver à la connaissance de ces rapports y en ajoutant beaucoup mieux connaître encore. Cependant je possède à croire que par le premier moyen on en arrive à l'état de civilisation. etc. etc. etc. etc. l'histoire de l'une de ces langues appartenant à la nation des Indes dans le cours des trois siècles derniers et de beaucoup d'autres qui avaient été par l'état de quelques d'entre elles. etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

J'aurai l'honneur de vous présenter aux premiers exemplaires de mon memoire puis que le premier qui passera en y en l'attachant au verso de la première page y en ajoutant une ou deux ou trois ou quatre pages que ce n'est pas, mais vous savez ce que ce que vous avez vu hier. Vous trouverez aussi dans les notes quelques recherches sur les noms d'animaux américains et si je puis m'occuper ainsi de la 505 système de nomenclature Zoologique des indigènes cela m'avant mis en goût de poursuivre quelques recherches sur les langues mais le manque des matériaux m'en manque. J'ai donc renoncé pour un temps à cette étude mais je la reprendrai certainement aussi les que j'en aurai pu me procurer de livres. J'en ai besoin pour mes bibliothèques publiques et privées pour destiner à un point inévitable en l'histoire.

(51.) Zu tt Othomi-Spr. La t forma otro caracter que se llama dental; pronunciase tocando fuertemente la lengua á los dientes, y echando el sonido con violencia azia fuera (Neve).

(52.) Zu dd Othomi-Spr. Sandoval nennt dies d di suono forte. Es muß wohl ein, allerdings mögliches, heftigeres Aussprechen des d gemeint seyn, bei dem es doch nicht zu t wird, sondern die Natur einer Media behält.

(53.) Zu ph Othomi-Spr. Sandoval sagt, dieser Buchstabe hätte den Schatten der Aussprache eines f. Neve aber behauptet, daß er nicht wie f, sondern immer wie ein aspirirtes p ausgesprochen werden müsse.

(54.) Zu th Othomi-Spr. Ob der bei Neve und Sandoval th geschriebene Laut wirklich diesen Klang hat, läßt sich nicht bestimmen. Nach Sandoval's Behauptung, daß derselbe den Europäern gänzlich unbekannt sey (Neve beschreibt ihn gar nicht), sollte man das Gegentheil glauben. Darf man aber bei ihm eine hinreichende Kenntniß anderer, als Süd-Europäischer Sprachen, denen das th fremd ist, voraussetzen?

(55.) Zu kh Othomi-Spr. Dieser Kehllaut wird sorgfältig vom Spanischen j unterschieden. S. Anm. 26.

(56.) Zu nh Othomi-Spr. Man findet mehrere mit nh anfangende Wörter; und da bei den Grammatikern dieser Sprache nicht an Portugiesische Rechtschreibung zu denken ist, so kann dies nur ein aspirirtes n seyn. Wie dies aber auszusprechen ist, wird nicht gesagt.

(57.) Verbindung eines sanften ch mit m und n Othomi-Spr. Nach Sandoval bedeutet das h vor Consonanten nur eine der Aussprache derselben vorausgehende Pause; nach Neve wird das h in diesem Fall solo como aspiracion ausgesprochen. Da es dem Consonanten vorausgeht, so muß immer eine Lautverbindung entstehen, und wie sanft die Aspiration sey, so ist sie der leise Anklang eines ch. Es kommt vor mehreren Consonanten vor. Da man aber in der Mitte der Wörter ungewiß bleibt, ob es sich als nachhallender Hauch mit dem vorhergehenden Vocal, oder als Vorlaut mit dem nachfolgenden Consonanten zu Einer Sylbe verknüpft, so setze ich nur die Verbindungen her, bei welchen, wie wenn beide Buchstaben das Wort anfangen, diese Ungewißheit nicht vorhanden ist. (Anm. 177.)

(58.) chg Othomi-Spr. Es ist dies derselbe Laut, als geschiedener Consonans, den wir oben (Anm. 48.) als Begleitungshauch des n gehabt haben. Neve schreibt die Wörter, in denen Sandoval diesen Laut findet, bloß mit h, und will sie also mit dem einfachen ch ausgesprochen haben.

(59.) Weiches s Othomi-Spr. Neve führt als Beispiel dieses Lauts im Spanischen cosecha an.

(60.) Geziertes s Othomi-Spr. Nach Neve z resongada. Er beschreibt es aber nur mit demselben Ausdruck: se pronuncia resongando la pronunciacion con suavidad.

(61.) ts Othomi-Spr. Ich bin über diesen Buchstaben ganz ungewiß. Neve sagt: se pronuncia apretando la punta de la lengua contra el paladar, y echando el sonido con fuerza. Hiermit stimmt Vetancurt's Beschreibung des Mexicanischen tz (Anm. 5.) einigermaßen überein: Las letras t y z se pronuncian como una, con alguna fuerza, hiriendo con toda la lengua en el paladar. Der Unterschied aber ist, daß nach der letzteren Beschreibung, da sich der ganze Rücken der Zunge an den Gaumen anlegt, doch noch die Spitze die Zähne berühren kann, was zur Hervorbringung des t-Lauts unvermeidlich ist, und daß aus Tapia's Beschreibung des Mexicanischen tz noch mehr hervorgeht, daß es ein t in sich faßt.
